INTRODUCING NAREDCO

A GOLD STANDARD IN REAL ESTATE

Established in 1998 under the guidance of India's Ministry of Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation, the National Real Estate Development Council (NAREDCO) stands as a pivotal self-regulating authority. Celebrated by the housing, real estate, and allied industries, NAREDCO represents the apex of collaboration – a unique nexus where government, industry, and the public converge for transparent dialogue, addressing challenges and unlocking opportunities. Born from a vision to infuse transparency, integrity, and structure into India's then-fragmented real estate landscape, NAREDCO aspires to transform this sector, elevating it to global standards. At its core, the council's ambition is clear : to be the driving force sculpting the real estate industry, championing efficient, effective, and ethical practices that are both respected and considered essential by all industry stakeholders.

ABOUT VIBE

VIBE (Value-Driven Insights for Builders' Excellence) is a thoughtfully curated real estate conclave designed to empower builders with high-value industry insights, presented by some of the most respected stalwarts in the sector. With a strong focus on knowledge-sharing, VIBE aims to ignite meaningful conversations that unlock new avenues for growth and innovation within the real estate landscape.

True to its name, VIBE is dedicated to fostering Builders' Excellence by bridging the gap between committed developers and the critical knowledge needed to excel across various facets of the industry. Spearheaded by NAREDCO Nashik, the conclave serves as a platform where data-driven insights meet strategic foresight, paving the way for builders to navigate the evolving market with confidence.
